On the evening of 14 October 2010, the annual Military Dinner took place in the elegantly decorated Grill Room at Kelvin Grove in Newlands, Cape Town. The guest speaker, Mr Cronje, Dir Communication of the City of Cape Town, addressed the formally attired dinner guests on the planning of the FIFA 2010 World Cup and its after-effects on the city. The dinner was attended by Major General Roy Andersen, Chief Defence Reserves, Major General Phil Pretorius (retired) and Mr Ivor Morgan, the Chairman of Kelvin Grove.
