THE GUNNERS' ASSOCIATION WP BRANCH: ANNUAL MEMORIAL SERVICE 25 March 2012

The Western Province Branch of the Gunners' Association hosts the Annual Gunners' Memorial Service in the Gardens, Cape Town on the above mentioned date. At this illustrious and prestigious occasion an address will be delivered by the Executive Mayor Alderman Patricia de Lille to serving and past Gunners as well as representatives from various military units and ex-service organisations. Various political and ambassadorial dignitaries will attend.

On behalf of the Western Province Branch of the Gunners' Association I have the pleasure of inviting you and your partner to attend the Service. Wreath laying and VIP guests invites will be done separately.

Parking will be reserved for you in the parking area of the South African National Gallery in Hatfield street. In order to finalise arrangements, it will be appreciated if you would confirm as early as possible whether you will personally attend and whether or not you or a representative will lay a wreath. The programme for the weekend is as follows:

Friday, 23 March 2012 at 18:00	Tiddler at CFA HQ, Fort iKapa (Jacket & tie) R30 pp
Saturday, 24 March 2012 11:00	Firing of cannons at East Fort Battery, Hout Bay Celebrating the Association and fallen comrades (Smart casual)
Sunday, 25 March 2012 at 10:30	Memorial in the Gardens, Cape Town (Inclement weather: 2nd Floor, Civic Centre Confirmation number if rain: 0828871020
Sunday, 25 March 2012 after the Memorial	Reception at South African National Gallery (behind the seating area at the Memorial)
Dress for the Memorial: Uniformed Members:	1A Ceremonial (wreath layers) 1B Ceremonial (non-wreath layers)
Other Members:	Lounge suit or national dress with medals

Note: wreath layers are responsible for their own wreaths

I am looking forward to your prompt and positive reply. Yours in Gunner Excellence and best regards.

Signed

Gunner Vidius Archer
