

ROYAL AGRICULTURAL SHOW 2012

The SANDF Reserve units in Kwa-Zulu Natal, will again be participating in the Royal Agricultural Show over the period 25 May – 3 June 2012.

This year's display by the SANDF Reserve Units promises to be a bumper affair. As part of the SANDF display, Natal Field Artillery and Umvoti Mounted Rifles will respectively have a G6 and Rooikat on display. Members from Natal Mounted Rifles, Natal Carbineers, 84 Signal Unit and 15 Maintenance Unit will have static displays depicting their unit traditions and history.

The SANDF and the Kwa-Zulu Natal Reserve Units have participated in the Royal Agricultural Show over a number of years and have a proud record with regard to their participation. This year promises to be no exception.

Here are some of previous year's displays.

19 Field engineers Regiment Demo Minefield.

Members of 15 Maintenance Unit ready for inspection.

Members of 84 Unit preparing for the show.

Natal Carbineers on display