

THE UNIVERSITY RESERVE TRAINING PROGRAMME (URTP) STUDENTS FROM THE UNIVERSITY OF PRETORIA (UP) RECRUITED TO JOIN THE URTP

Following the recruitment of students from the Engineering Faculty in 2012 by the SA Air Force, the SA Army, SA Military Health Service and the Logistics Division will now offer students from UP the opportunity to join the ranks of the URTP.

As at other universities, recruitment will take place in terms of the skills requirement of the abovementioned Services and Division which will include the following fields of study:

- Economics and Finance
- Information and Communication Technology
- Sciences
- Engineering and the Built Environment
- Humanities
- Health Sciences (Medical, Dentistry, Pharmacology and Social Work)

Students interested in serving in the following Formations of the SA Army are also invited to attend the recruitment campaign on the campus:

- Artillery
- Air Defence Artillery
- Armour
- Intelligence
- Signals

An awareness campaign will be launched on the Pretoria campuses of UP during February and a presentation on the URTP will be made on 06 March 2013 from 13:30 – 14:30 in the “Nagraads” venue (Room1-64). The presentation will be repeated at 14:30 to 15:30.

The awareness and recruitment campaign is executed in close collaboration with the Career Office of UP.

Enquiries can be directed to Col Monica Muller at defres@telkomsa.net.