On Thursday 13 December 2012 the Defence Reserves Provincial Office Western Cape had the opportunity to present a function in the form of a breakfast to thank all role-players, both civilian and SANDF for their contribution to the successes of the Defence Reserves Provincial Office Western Cape.

Lt Col Johan Conradie, SO1 Defence Reserves Provincial Office Western Cape, presented an overview of why there should be a Reserve Force. The achievements of the Defence Reserves Provincial Office Western Cape were highlighted and a brief list of what is planned for 2013 was presented.

The presentation was ended by a tasty breakfast and everybody was wished a blessed festive season and prosperous 2013.
