SANDF EDUCATION TRUST:
AWARD OF BURSARIES FOR THE 2014 ACADEMIC YEAR

General Solly Shoke, Chief of the South African National Defence Force, is happy to announce that the Trustees of the newly established SANDF Education Trust have, for the 2014 academic year, awarded 31 (thirty one) bursaries to a total value of R348 430 (three hundred and forty eight thousand four hundred and thirty Rand) to the dependents of SANDF members – both Regular and Reserve Force - who have died or were severely injured in the execution of their duties.

These awards were made to 12 (twelve) Primary School, 15 (fifteen) Secondary School and 4 (four) Tertiary Learners who are from six different Provinces.

Beneficiaries for 2014 include 6 (six) dependents of Reserve Force members who served in 1 Med Bn Gp.

The Trustees are expected to announce further awards in the near future in cases where assistance is still being provided to the guardians of applicants with the finalisation of applications and the supporting documentation.

Appreciation is expressed to business men and women and members of the public who, since the announcement of the establishment of the Trust early in October 2013, have spontaneously financially supported the Trust.
