

the sandf

Department:
Defence
REPUBLIC OF SOUTH AFRICA

Reserve Force Units/Regiments Participating in the 2017 Rand Show

1. Regiment Oos Rand exhibiting together with 21 SA Infantry Battalion (Permanent Force Unit).

Lieutenant Allan Neill, Corporal Rethabile Seqhoha (21 SAI BN) and Lieutenant Des Hewitt ready to educate and entertain the show goers.

Lieutenant Hewitt, helping the children to debus from the Mamba Infantry Personnel Carrier Vehicle.

Lieutenant Neill, explaining the functions of SS77 Light Machine Gun.

Lance Corporal Jan Donald Maswili, explaining the application of the 40mm Multiple Grenade Launcher.

2. Witwatersrand Rifles exhibiting together with 1 SA Mechanised Infantry Battalion

Lieutenant Siyabonga Khukhaphi, Warrant Officer Gerald Partridge, Staff Sargent Ismail Johnson and Corporal Michael Makgoka ready to receive the visitors.

Lieutenant Siyabonga Khukhaphi, demonstrating different types of 81mm Mortar ammunition and their usage.

3. SA Army Signal Formation Exhibition deployed: 11 Field Post Office and 7 Signal Units

Entrance to the SA Army Signal Formation display.

Corporal Michael Makhuba from 7 Signal Unit demonstrating deployment of signal equipment during tactical deployments.

Members of 11 Field Postal Unit manning their stand.

4. Thaba Tswane Regiment showcases an Electronic Live Aiming Corrector System (ELAC System)

ELAC System is an electronic weapon that is laser guided. This weapon training system is cost effective, easy to transport and to operate. It can be used indoors and outdoors without having to go to the actual shooting range.

Rifleman Danie Liebenberg, Sergeant Cecilia Marx, Lance Corporal Allan Groenewald.

Sergeant Marx, coaching a visitor on how to aim and fire the ELAC System.

Lance Corporal Allan Groenewald and Rifleman Danie Liebenberg enticing future SANDF commanders.